

One Day Workshop--Watercolor Portraits

Instructor: JJ Jiang

Tuesday, May 19, 2015

10 pm to 4:30 pm

Cost: $145(model fee included)

Age: 18+

Min: 6 people, Max: 12 people

Watercolor is known for its fast application and luminous effect which makes it an ideal medium to capture the beauty of the human form. It is also an intimidating medium when one is not experienced with it. In this one day workshop, JJ will part his years of experience with this subject by giving demos and leading the group in a variety of exercisers in a relaxing and encouraging environment.

JJ Jiang is an awarding winning artist and respected art instructor. A gifted and classically trained artist, JJ possesses solid foundations in drawing, perspective and colors. Though accomplished in watercolor, he is a versatile artist - excelling in oils, Chinese brush painting and with a variety of subjects including landscape/urbanscapes, human figures and portraits, and still life. His in-depth understanding of both Eastern and Western cultures gives his art a fresh and surprising look while adding depth and poetry to his teaching. JJ currently lives in Cary, North Carolina and is the founder and director of the Village Art Circle Studio and Gallery in the heart of downtown Cary. To see more of JJ's work, go to his website: www.JJiang.com and www.villageartcircle.com