Thank you to everyone who entered Carolina on My Mind! The artwork submitted for this show was of very high quality! Our juror is Adam Cave, owner/director of Adam Cave Fine Art gallery in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Carolina on My Mind 2016 will be a great exhibit of 40 pieces of art selected from 140 images representing the work of artists from the Triangle area and beyond. As this event was open to all media of traditional and non-traditional subject matter, the entries represent an extremely wide range of artistic styles and skills. The major goal of Carolina on My Mind is to both encourage and challenge artists of the area to continuously strive for artistic excellence as well as communicate and learn from each other along the way.

We appreciate your participation in Carolina on My Mind 2016 and your part in helping to make it a success. We have every intention to continue to build this event into one of the area's well-known and respected annual juried exhibits. We welcome you to continue to participate in this exciting journey!

To those whose work has been juried into the show, we congratulate you in your endeavors. Please note the following dates:

Opening Reception: October 28, 6 - 9 pm with Award Presentation at 7 pm

Drop off dates: October 20, 21, 22 between 11 am and 5 pm

Pick up from the gallery: November 28 & 29, between 12 pm and 4 pm

Please don't be discouraged if one or more of your submissions was not accepted into this show. Like every juried exhibition, this is a selection of work based on one juror's aesthetic and the space limitations of the gallery. Please continue creating and sharing your work with the world.

For questions, please contact us at villageartcircle@gmail.com. We look forward to seeing you at the Opening Reception on October 28!
